

Jennifer Johnston Terando, R.N., Esq.

President Southern California Mediation Association utilizes medical and legal experience to assist parties in reaching settlement in mediation.

ADR/Mediation Experience

Private mediator since 2019, Panel member of: Mediation Center of Los Angeles and American Health Law Association Dispute Resolution Service, volunteer mediator Center for Conflict Resolution, and 2021 Dispute Resolution Fellow, American Bar Association.

Legal Experience

22 years of experience as practicing attorney, civil litigation both plaintiff and defense, and representing physicians in health law matters.

Professional Affiliations

Southern California Mediation Association, President

Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles

Dispute Resolution Training

LACBA Forty-hour training

Straus Institute at Pepperdine University, Mediating the Litigated Case

Have attended numerous dispute resolution conferences and webinars.

Education/Degrees

BSN, 1997, cum laude, Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing at Case Western Reserve University

J.D. with certificate in health law – '00 Case Western Reserve University School of Law

LLM coursework in healthcare at Loyola University School of Law, Chicago, 2004