

LYDIA GALA LIBERIO, ESQ, LL.M., MBA, MCIArb, PMP, RMP, ACP, PBA, DASSM, LIMC, CSM, CFE, SHRM-SCP

ADMISSIONS: Licensed member of the California and New York State Bars; Admitted to practice before United States Supreme Court and Immigration Courts, New York State Court, California Federal District Court, California State Court and California Appellate Court. LASC Certified Judge Pro Tem (small claims, limited civil-collections, unlawful detainer trials/law & motion and mandatory settlement conferences, family law, and traffic); LACBA Family Law Section Daily/Virtual Settlement Officer Panel; Mediator Pro Bono Panels: U.S. EEOC, Southern California Mediation Association, and pre-covid, Los Angeles County Department of Consumer and Business Affairs and Cal. Lawyers for the Arts Mediator. Arbitral Panels: MCIArb International Arbitrator, LACBA ACMS Fee Arbitrations, and Arbitral Women.

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY: As a civil law attorney for 22 years, my practice areas are complex corporate, employment, insurance, environmental, real property, probate and family law matters in mediation, arbitration, litigation, and administrative agency settings. In addition to practicing, extra skills led to certifications as a senior human resource professional, fraud examiner, risk manager, program manager, and agile/disciplined agile professional, complementing unique in-house legal department management and contract compliance experience. As a legal solution finder, my Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) background includes a USC Gould School of Law LL.M. in ADR, MCIArb credential, SCMA Mentor Program; Cal. Lawyers for Arts DRPA certification/panel; U.S. EEOC & L.A. County Dept. of Consumer & Business Affairs Pro Bono Mediator; and the LASC Family and Probate DSO/VSO (Daily/Virtual Settlement Officer) panel. I give back by volunteering as an L.A.S.C. Temporary Judge for collections/limited civil, small claims, traffic, family tier 2, and unlawful detainer cases, which now include U.D. mandatory settlement conferences.
